Final Project Auto-Zone

Goal - The goal of this project is to have a trusted website that you can buy car parts from the website will have a new parts imported from outside of Jordan the parts are new to Jordan market where it's a new feature in Jordan maybe never done before.

Description - The car parts could be an interior or exterior parts and performance parts which are the most common parts for a car and the special accessories.

Languages - Javascript / HTML / CSS.

Technologies - Used technologies in this project are front-end react library / back-end express with nodeJS and MongoDB for the database.

Features – Login and registration with roles admin and a normal user the admin can add a new product or update an existing one or delete product which can be done by the admin dashboard in the website a normal user can only see the products and he can't see the admin dashboard the user can add a product to a wish list page where he can get back to his products and he can add a product to a cart where he can finally finish his order in the website then the products will be delivered to his address.